University of Georgia Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 224 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.5in. x 0.7in. Three months after a family vacation in Costa Rica ends in tragedy when two fellow rafters die on the flooded Rio Reventazn, John Lane sets out with friends from his own backyard in upcountry South Carolina to calm his nerves and to paddle to the sea. Like Huck Finn, Lane sees a river journey as a portal to change, but unlike Twains character, Lane isnt escaping. Hes getting intimate with the river that flows right past his home in the Spartanburg suburbs. Lanes threehundred-mile float trip takes him down the Broad River and into Lake Marion before continuing down the Santee River. Along the way Lane recounts local history and spars with streamside literary presences such as Mind of the South author W. J. Cash; Henry Savage, author of the Rivers of America Series volume on the Santee; novelist and Pulitzer Prizewinner Julia Peterkin; early explorer John Lawson; and poet and outdoor writer Archibald Rutledge. Lane ponders the sites of old cotton mills; abandoned locks, canals, and bridges; ghost towns fallen into decay a century before; Indian mounds; American Revolutionary and Civil War battle sites; nuclear power plants; and boat landings. Along the way he encounters a cast of characters Twain himself would envyperplexed fishermen, catfish cleaners, river rats, and a trio of drug-addled drifters on a lonely boat dock a days paddle from the sea. By the time Lane and his companions finally approach the ocean about forty miles north of Charleston they have to fight the tide and set a furious pace. Through it all, paddle stroke by paddle stroke, Lane is reminded why life and rivers have always been wedded together. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive...
