Congressional Sales Office, 2001. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)48539982 Subject: Airlines -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 Senator W. I always agree with Jesse Helms. Laugh-ELLSTONE ter. ELMS Senator H. If anybody believes that, I have a little swamp-land down in Eastern North Carolina I want to sell you. But he is a good friend, really. I wish he would do something I could agree with. Laughter. Senator L. Jesse, he just did. He yielded to you. EAHY E INE Senator D W. He yielded to you, Senator, so maybe we can all agree on that. Senator H. OK. If we struggle long enough, we will, I am ELMS sure. Seriously, Mr. Wellstone, I was teasing and I know you were, Itoo. do not come here pretending to be an expert on rates, what they should be or what they are not. I have some problem with the rates from Raleigh-Durham to Washington. When I came to Wash-ington, you could buy a round-trip for two times 39, or you could buy a single trip for 39. But you look at the cost of gasoline and salaries and all the rest now, and I do not propose to be an expert on operating an airline and I do not come here as such, but I want to make clear that as one who remembers Tom Davis - I do not know whether Senator Edwards is old enough to remember or not, but US Air was once Piedmont Airlines, which was founded in North Carolina and founded by a great friend of mine, and then...
