

China Mission: A Personal History From The Last Imperial Dynasty To The People's Republic.

By Topping, Audrey Ronning.

Louisiana State University Press, Baton Rouge and London, 2013. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 472 pages. Hardcover with dustjacket. New book. CHINA. Winner of the PROSE Award for Media & Cultural Studies. When the Reverend Halvor Ronning, his sister Thea, and fellow missionary Hannah Rorem set out in 1891 to found a Lutheran mission and school in the interior of China, they could not have foreseen the ways in which that decision would ripple across generations of the Ronning family. Halvor and Hannah would marry, and their son Chester, born in Hubei Province in 1894, would spend over half his life in China as a student, teacher, and a Canadian diplomat. Chester's daughter, Audrey, studied at Nanking University during the Chinese Civil War and later spent decades reporting on the People's Republic of China for the New York Times, Foreign Affairs, and many other publications. "During the last century," Audrey Topping notes, "a member of our family was there for almost every event of importance." China Mission presents a personal history of her family's ties to their adopted home and the momentous events that radically changed one of the most powerful countries in the world. The Ronnings found Imperial China at...
