Not illustrated. 1889 Excerpt: .for its sole and only use the whole amount paid to the collector by the inhabitants of the section less the cost of collection. In 1844 a by-law was passed appointing a superintendent of common schools for the district, and a superintendent of common schools for each township. In the same year a by-law was passed levying a tax of. 80 for the maintenance of one model school for the period of one year from the establishment of the same. In the same year, 1844, a by-law was passed raising an amount equal to the provincial grant (i.e., 1,245 8s. 3d.) for the maintenance of public schools. This levy was apportioned not among the school sections but among the townships, Westminster paying for example 138 to this tax. The district council ordered the proportion in which it should be collected from the several townships. A by-law was also passed enabling each school section to raise money to pay their public school teacher. It is evident that education was at this time made a prominent feature of local administration. In 1849 a by-law was passed at the request of a majority of the persons entitled to vote in the township of Yarmouth providing for the levying and disbursement of a fund for the support of indigent persons in the township, to be raised from the ratepayers of the same. The township clerk was made custodian of the fund, and rendered his account to the district council, paying...
