Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Day at Bob-lo Set in the mid 60s, A Day at Bob-lo is a 24 hour odyssey that captures the lives of Americans and Canadians as they meet and mingle on a hot summer day at an amusement park on an island in the Detroit River. The action begins in the wee hours of the morning at the Detroit dock as the Night Gang crew of the SS Columbia struggle to clean up the ship for the coming day. A sense of mystery is introduced as one of the gang senses an apparition in the river s haze. The morning unfolds with the introduction of crew members, entertainers, island employees and park patrons - as they make their way onto the Bob-lo scene. Soon the boat is on its way for its 90 minute cruise from downtown Detroit to the island and the fun begins amidst ominous portents. The afternoon is full of adventures of both the expected and unexpected variety as the paths of many of the players cross as the day heats up. A summer squall comes out of nowhere to nearly drive the ship ashore and threatens to close the park. But, as the sun and heat return and the rides restart, the strange events begin to build toward a reaction stage: The ship is experiencing a shifting channel; the company mascot, Captain Bob-lo, has gotten into the bandleader s dago red and begins to morph into a legendary being out of the city s past; The Columbia s First Mate enters into counter warfare with his nemesis, the Purser; and the dj of CKLW radio, doing a farewell live remote from the island,...
