I am ready and willing at all times, on all occasions, and under all circumstances, to give a reason for the hope that is in me. The terrible conflict our government is waging, for its very existence, demands that every patriotic citizen should speak out boldly, unconditionally, for the integrity of the Union. The greatest danger lies not in the armies of rebellion. All around us, in secret conclave, are the midnight plotters of disunion. Already do their works proclaim their purposes. Deep mutterings and fierce threatenings assail up on every side. Bad men, insidiously at work, inflaming the worst passions of the people. Bitter in their denunciation of every thing done calculated to suppress the rebellion. Like the Pharisees of old, who assailed our Savior with the question: Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath day? they are...
